

MSFC Peer Survey with Opinion Questions

SECTION 1:

1. Which of the following would you want to see integrated in to [school name] curriculum? (Check all that apply.):
 - Counseling patients about contraceptive options and emergency contraception.
 - Counseling pregnant women about their choices, including parenting, adoption, surgical abortion and medical abortion.
 - Information about medical abortion, surgical abortion procedures and follow-up care.
 - Discussion of ethical and religious issues surrounding reproductive choice.
 - Discussion of strategies for reconciling personal beliefs with medical, legal and ethical obligations as a physician.
 - Information about access to reproductive health care for adolescent and under-served populations.
 - Nothing. The current curriculum is adequate.
2. How well do you feel that the above issues are currently taught as part of the [school name here] curriculum? (check one)
 - They are not taught at all.
 - They are taught, but could be improved.
 - They are well addressed in the current curriculum.
3. If there were an elective on “Reproductive Choice and Health” would you consider attending lectures on some of the above topics?
 - Yes Not sure No
4. Which of the following statements best illustrates your personal opinion about the availability of abortion? (check one)
 - It should be available to all who seek it.
 - It should be available, with some restrictions.
 - It should be available only in extreme cases.
 - It should never be available.
5. Would you provide abortion services upon request if trained to do so?
 - Yes Not sure No

6. Which of the following statements best illustrates your personal opinion about the availability of contraception and other family planning services?

- It should be available to all who seek it.
- It should be available, with some restrictions.
- It should be available only in extreme cases.
- It should never be available.

7. Would you provide contraception and other family planning services upon request if trained to do so?

- Yes Not sure No

SECTION 2:

1. How has the curriculum changed throughout the years?

2. How is the curriculum currently changing?

3. How have changes been implemented?

4. What obstacles arose to changing the curriculum?

5. How were these obstacles overcome?

6. What is the current policy or process for curriculum change?
